200 Highland Cottage

A week's stay in a Scottish Highland Cottage set in a nature lover's paradise. If you enjoy spending time in the outdoors hiking, fishing, swimming or golfing, this is the place to come. Braefoot is a traditional south facing cottage set on crofting land at the gateway to the Ardnamurchan Peninsula. Located near Fort William in the historic Scottish highlands, making it the perfect location for touring and exploring castles, historical battlegrounds, and looking for the Lochness Monster. The cottage is located only one mile from the village shops and pub. It is fully furnished and includes a delightful sunroom with southern exposure overlooking the picturesque landscape. The cottage includes the sunroom, sitting room, eat-in kitchen, large utility room, and central heating which helps keep you snug. Sleeps 4 guests, in one double room and one room with twin beds. There are two WCs and one full bath with tub and shower.

Travel to Scotland is not included. The cottage is just over a 2.5 hour's drive from Glasgow which has air, road and rail links to all major cities in the UK. Stay is subject to availability based on a mutually agreeable date.
